4.a.		Pursue federally-funded economic development awards to build a critical mass of soft-funded economic development services provided by the campus community	c In progress and on schedule	In June 2023, CDS received a grant from SCHEV to transform Federal Work Study jobs into more "internship-like" positions. A working group named the Federal Work Study (FWS) Internship Program Steering Committee was formed in July and has been making progress towards the milestones and timeline for a Fall 2024 program pilot. A part-time project manager position has recently been filled for this grant with a planned start date of mid-December. This work will lead to FWS funds paying for student internships on campus.	It took longer than expected to recruit for this part-time position designed to keep the steering committee and work on target. Target are still being met and progress expected to increase in the Spring.	s Program Steering Committee is comprised of representatives	internship coordinators; (2) formation of an implementation approach	the grant will need to be applied for
4.b.		Convene and participate in regional economic development teams pursuing one-time federal and other economic development funding opportunities
