Description of Issue:
The Graduate Administrators' Council (GAC) recommendent to the laster's Examination section of the Grazalte Catalogo clarify how to form exam committees and how toaddress xeam retakesand clarifywhat happens ithe exam is failed twice.

Rational for Submission:

The suggested policy editedres issue raisedby faculty and studentonfusion over how to form examination committees, how long can be taken between time one and time two administrations if the first attempt is failed, and to note that a sectainare shall lead to dismissal from the program (to be consistent withdobteral candidacy policy)

A comprehensive written examination and/or oral examination, or its equivalent, is required under the non-thesis option and, depending on the program, may be required under the thesis option. The examination tests the requirements of the major department and examining committee. A program may propose, through the appropria examination with an equivalent requirement. Such equivalent requirements shall be approved by the dean of The Graduate School. For further information, the student should consult the section on requirements under each degree program.

The examining committee is appointed by the graduate program director with appropriate notification to the student. The examining committee is composed of a minimum of three members who may or may not be those who serve as advisors or members of the thesis committee. Members are expected to be certified for graduate instruction in the major department/school and college. The student should secure the signatures of the committee members and submit the proper comprehensive examination committee to the graduate
