MISSION

A Mission communicates the overarching purpose of the degree program.

A well-written Mission includes a brief statement of the general values and principles which guide the program curriculum and is specific to the degree program/major (as opposed to the department). The mission clearly articulates the educational purpose, the primary functions, and the learning experiences ## address the following questions:

- 1. What is the degree program name?
- 2. What is the educational purpose of the program?
- 3. What is the primary function of the program?
- 4. What are the primary activities or learning experiences provided by the program?
- 5. Does the mission implicitly or explicitly align the program with the mission of the department, college, and university?

Meets Standard Criteria on Academic Assessment Rubric:

☑ Mission mostly provides a clear, comprehensive, and concise description of the program to internal and external stakeholders; mission is aligned with college or university mission.

Here's a template to follow:

The mission of the [1. degree program name] is to [2. educational purpose] in order to [3. primary function]. The program seeks to [4. primary activities or learning experiences]. In alignment with the mission of the college and university, the program [5. explicit or implicit alignment with overarching missions].

Examples

